

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home. Indiana's law has been very effective almost eliminating all nuisance calls. That is why the importance of Indiana's law to remain intact is imperative.